[redacted] the Magistrat turned down the offer of the Baumann firm because the price quoted was considerably above price quotations submitted by firms in Sweden.

2. [] that the late Emil Weber, Mozartstrasse, Bremerhaven-Geestmuende, attempted to persuade captains of fishing vessels based in Bremerhaven to put in at Russian Zone ports with their cargo. Several of these trawlers were chartered by Russian Zone authorities for fishing in the Baltic. Weber recently met with a fatal accident while visiting the Russian Zone of Germany. Rinke (fnu), who had been Weber's closest associate, is continuing in this business. He is an employee of the Pust shipping office and resides in Bremerhaven.

Comment: Not further identified.

ment: Preliminary proceedings for this attempted transaction were described in referenced report.

 Comment: Probably F. Abert Pust, Fischerei u. Tranfabrik, Fischereihafen, Bremerhaven.
